“ I can still remember what a beautiful bride she was when she married my big brother, Fred. She graciously asked me to be a flower girl. My brother Bob was ring bearer.

Fred and Joan were blessed with 6 great kids.

Joan was a wonderful cook and loved to feed us when we visited.

I'll never forget her beautiful smile and infectious laugh.

I am sure Fred was waiting for her at Heaven's gate. RIP dear sister.

“ The first time my husband met my sister in law Joan, he wasn't even my boyfriend at the time. Joan liked him from the very beginning and he thought she was great. She fed him her wonderful food she prepared. He was in heaven, he thought wow this family is great. She was friendly, warm, welcoming, funny and such a smile. God Bless Her. She is with the "love of her life", my brother Freddy.
