Ray was active in the community as a Cub Scout Leader for Troop 36 in Camden, and enjoyed being involved in youth sports as a Midget Football and Little League Baseball coach. Ray was past President of the West Deptford Band Parents Association. He was an avid Eagles and Phillies fan, enjoyed spending time outdoors, and especially loved going to Long Beach Island where his family vacationed for many years. Ray was an avid TV and old movie buff. His favorite thing to do was sitting in his recliner watching TV. “ What a beautiful tribute to Mr. Carroll. I only knew Mr. Carroll for a short time here at Pitman Manor, but he was the sweetest. He was always friendly and helping out the other residents when he could. He will be greatly missed here. God Bless
