John, the youngest of nine siblings, has departed from this world, leaving behind a legacy of cherished memories and a profound impact on those who knew him. Born into a large and loving family, he found solace and joy in their company, treasuring every moment spent together. His early adventures took him to the glittering lights of Las Vegas, where he indulged in the thrill of the craps table, and to the sun-kissed shores of Mexico, where he forged lifelong friendships during winter vacations.

An unwavering Philadelphia sports enthusiast, John's heartbeat loudest for the Eagles, and Phillies.

In his leisure, John found pleasure in simple yet fulfilling activities. From working diligently to playing cards with friends, from watching classic Westerns to unraveling cryptograms, he embraced each moment with a zest for life.

Though John has bid farewell to this world, his spirit lives on in the hearts of those who had the privilege of knowing him. He leaves behind a tapestry of memories woven with love, laughter, and the warmth of cherished moments shared with family and friends. “ The end of an era ; the last of the Mohicans .
Good bye Uncle John . Thank you for sharing much of your life with my dad & mom . I know you and dad had a special bond . They loved you and Aunt Ellie very much as do I and JoAnn and our boys . I still remember writing you letters when you were in Korea . I remember sharing your “interest” in sports . I remember working on the construction of your house in Mickleton (?) . I remember working in your liquor store . I will cherish these memories always . I am honored that you and Aunt Ellie took us into your home after mom and dad died . I will miss our visits . I will miss you . I will always love you as I do my dad . God Bless you and keep you Uncle John .
