

John T. Dykie, Jr.

September 4, 1950 - November 8, 2023

John T. Dykie, Jr. "Jack" on November 8, 2023 of Wenonah. Age 73. Beloved husband of Barbara E. (nee DiCrescenzo). Loving father of Jeffrey Dykie, Jessica Secreta (late Craig) of Somerdale, and Jennifer Lynch-Chandler (late Justin) of Oak Valley. Devoted grandfather of Alexis, Julia, Sophia, John, Dylan, Sage, and Charli. Great-grandfather of Aubrey and Logan. He is predeceased by his sister, Deborah Meddings.

Jack retired from Campbells Soup in Camden, NJ. He volunteered in the Athletic Department at Gloucester Catholic High School for many years. He enjoyed golfing and was an avid Phillies & Eagles fan. His favorite things included going down the shore, swimming, casinos, games and being his grandchildren's number one fan at their softball games, band competitions, dance recitals, and flag football games. He will be greatly missed by all.

“ Jack was a staple at GC, perhaps the most loyal of them all. The days days coaching with Jack, at Rams Camp, and scouting the opponent were great memories because Jack always brought love and laughter with him.

Jack has a wonderful way of making each moment enjoyable and poured that trait into his family and GC basketball for years.

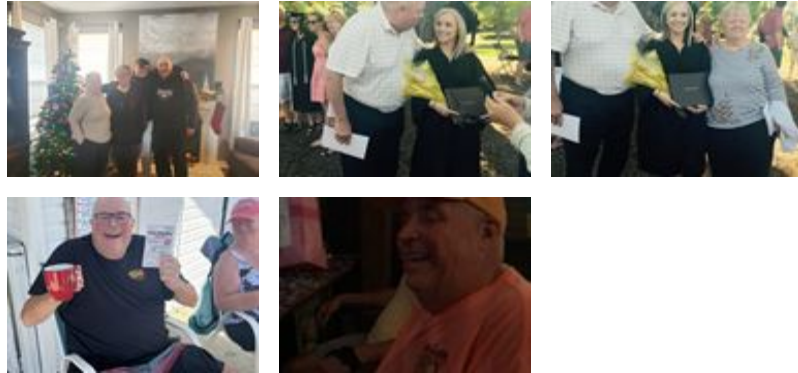

Jack, the Bakey's will miss you brother!

Thanks for being a great friend, I'll be thinking of you the day after Thanksgiving!

“ Jack was a great coach who made those long cold winter practices more enjoyable as a player. But later once I got to coach along side Jack it was even more special to get to know him and see how much he really cares. Every basketball gym in South Jersey will be a little lacking this year. He will be dearly missed.

“ Dad,
Whether it was trips to Camden yards trips down the shore football baseball hockey and basketball games the memories I have with you will last in my memories forever!!!! You were a great husband father grandfather and human being! You never gave up on me even in the darkest of times. I love you with all my heart now always and forever. Thanks for showing everyone what a loving husband, father and friend should be. Rest easy pop love you.

“ I was very sad to hear about Jack's passing. He was a special person who loved his growing family and was just a self less human. He was always fun to be around and did so much for the GC Athletic Department--you just can't imagine! He will always be remembered as a caring person. Our prayers are with you, Barb, and all of the family. The Calzonetti Family

“ Jack is one of my oldest and dearest friends. We share hundreds of hours and experiences together in Scouts, Little League and on Maple Avenue. He was a great friend for over 70 years.

He wanted to replace By Saam as the Phillies radio announcer growing up.

I would like to recount a story. In 1974 after graduating from college, I was driving from Haddon Heights to my first duty assignment in El Paso, TX. I invited Jack to join me on my journey. We had stopped on the PA TPKE to eat lunch. My car had Flyers decals on the rear window and street hockey sticks in the back seat. A 10 year old kid walked up to us while we were eating our sandwiches at a rest stop picnic table. He asked if we played for the Flyers. I said yes and introduced myself as obscure player Ross Lonsberry. Jack pipes in with his best Bela Lugosi voice, "My name is Moose Dupont." We signed autographs and made the kid's day... We saw a game in Wrigley Field, the Phils-Cards in a DH at Busch, road on a riverboat, spend an evening on Bourbon St in New Orleans, saw the Astros in the Astrodome, saw the A's-Rangers in Arlington (the night that Nixon resigned), stopped in Pecos, TX before arriving in the Sun City.

Jack had never been more than a 2 hour drive out of Haddon Heights prior to this trip. He saw a whole lot of Americana in this 8 day drive. One I'm sure he never forgot.

Condolences from all the Maddens to Jack's extended family. He will be missed by everyone that knew him. He was a good soul with a big heart.

“ *Barb, Jeff and Family,
Jack was truly one of a kind. His dedication to family, friends and Gloucester Catholic was second to none. Whatever you needed Jack did it with a smile. Many great memories coaching basketball with him for a lot of years at GC. Jack was an invaluable and beloved member of the Ram Family. He will be missed. Prayers to you and your family.*
