“ Dear Betty Anne, Heather, Jennifer, all the grandchildren and all the family, We were so deeply saddened to learn of John's sudden passing. We can only imagine the grief this has brought to your hearts. John.... husband, father, grandfather, brother and friend....how deeply he will be missed. Bill and I wish that it had been possible for us to join you tomorrow for his funeral. Our winter weather has been especially challenging this year...so much snow and cold temps! Lord willing, we will be able to visit you sometime in the summer. For now we send our love, prayers, loving thoughts and long-distance hugs to you! You are all loved very much and you will continue to be in thoughts and prayers tomorrow. In the Steadfast love of our God and Savior, Bill and Vera
