“ I am deeply saddened. Jack was my best guy friend in college and we managed to stay in touch and see each other for at least 15 years. Then our lives became farther apart- him in NYC and me with two small children. After a long separation we reunited just 2 weeks before his stroke. Regretfully, I wish I had seen more of him, but I cherish the memories when he was in Wildwood and when he visited Atlantic City. At times, I gave him crap to reach out for more help and get healthier .. but he just shrugged and said OK in his Jack way.. always we talked and laughed. He sounded great the last time we spoke, and I admired how he had become more and more positive and optimistic. He never lost his keen sense of humor and could always make me laugh. I will miss his visits and our phone conversations. I am just so sad right now. I offer my condolences to you for your loss and if I can be of any help with his service when the time comes, please let me know. My cell is 609 204-3862. God bless you all and good Heath to you and yours

“ You were always Uncle Jack to me too. I loved that rascally twinkle in your eye, and the way I always knew what to focus on at a party by observing your mischievous smile and gaze. I have fond memories of wading in the ocean with you and jumping the waves! Love you Uncle Jack and love to the rest of you missing him too.

“ Uncle Jack,

I am so sorry I couldn't be with you the last few days. I am going to miss you very much. I'll always cherish our special bond and all the laughs we had. I want you to know that I'll never forget all the goofy jokes we would tell each other and all the smiles you gave me. 28 years wasn't enough time and I'll miss you each and every day. I love you. Rest easy and give Grammy and pop a hug for me.

Love,
Jimmy Jr.

“ Oh Jack... So sad that you are gone! We had some fun times growing up. Although you tortured me at times. LOL. Really great times in Wildwood! Tormenting grandmom by hiding her food in the refrigerator. Do you think she knew it was us? Ask her when you see her. I will miss your crazy sense of humor, your pranks and our reality show discussions. Especially about Survivor! Give my Mom, Dad and Billy a hug and kiss for me. I miss them so much and already miss you too! Love you Jack! xoxo
