

John F. Malloy

August 27, 1933 - May 28, 2020

John (Jack) F. Malloy on May 28, 2020 of Elmwood Hills, formerly of Deptford. Age 86.

Son of the late James Malloy and Frances (nee Whitmore). Loving husband of Lucretia S. (nee Ranieri). Beloved father of John P. Malloy (Terry) and the late Keith N. Malloy. Brother of the late James Malloy (the late Jane), the late Alice Woodhull (the late Wilmer). Brother-in-law of Nora Beucker (the late Walter), late Edward Ranieri (the late Mary), late Mary Bovio (the late John) and late Gilda Ranieri. Loving grandfather of Lisa Marie, Nichole (Robert) and Michael. Great-grandfather of 4 and dear uncle to many nieces and nephews.

Jack dedicated his life to his family and loved family gatherings. He proudly served our country in the US Army during the Korean War. He retired from Smith Kline in 1992. Jack was an avid reader and especially enjoyed reading about the Civil War. His hobbies included visiting battlefields, lighthouses and going to the shore. He loved football and enjoyed watching old movies. He will be missed deeply by his loved ones.

Due to the restrictions set forth by the State of New Jersey, services will be private.
