“ I first meet Mr. John many years ago in Alaska. He was visiting with his daughter Michelle and family. I stopped by to meet him and his wife, Mrs. Rose. He opened the door with a big smile and opened arms! Then feed me some delicious chowder. He was a kind man. I'm so very sorry for your loss.

“ It was such a joy when your father visited. On the one occasion he taught me how to make awesome chicken with a lemon sauce. And also delicious Rice Pudding. He was always patient, wise and kind person. We all enjoyed having him here sharing so unselfishly in whatever way he could. Gone but certainly not forgotten.
