“ Our deepest sympathy to Jack's family. I have some wonderful memories growing up in Chicago with cousins HelenJean and Sis, and Uncle Augie. Uncle often talked about his son Jack that he loved so. As I understand it, Jack was my babysitter so many, many years ago in Chicago. (smile) I heard what a wonderful guy Jack has been thru the years..I can see by some family photos how true that is. I know Jack will be missed. love, Cousin Sharon

“ Pop, Jen and I miss you alot already. I'll never forget the Santa Claus who came every Christmas, that strangely looked like my grandfather or the trip to NC where you said, "we'll crank up the radio all the way down and if hear a good song, we'll just stop the car and tap dance down the highway." I am sure you are showing off your tap dancing skills off in the clouds. Love you.

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Cousin Jack. I remember, as a young person, Uncle Augie (Jack's dad) would always brag about him and what a great family he had. I know Cousin Sis will really miss him too. May God Bless Him and His Family - Our Prayers are with the family. August Ross & My Mom (Ruth Ross Skerston) were sister and brother. I am Ruth's 3rd daughter, Patsy - and my husband is Jeff - just thought you would want to know who I am. May God Bless.

“ At a time like this words are inadequate, but may beautiful memories sustain you during this time of sadness. Most of the family had moved when I was very young so most of my memories of my uncle Jack were his visits to Chicago and our dinners at Mabenka for some good Lithuanian and Polish cooking.

“ What a joy it has been to have Uncle Jack in our family-always a hug,a compliment and of course a wise crack. His humor and lust for life always made you smile and enjoy his company. We are glad that his sons seem to have acquired his sense of humor and quick comebacks. We'll miss you, but hope to continue to enjoy the company of your children and hear stories of the character you were and the man they came to know late in life. Thanks for bringing us so much joy -we could always count on it. You will be blessed. Great Gram will welcome your company. Love you, Loretta, Luis Curtis and Brandon
