“ My heart goes out to all the family. Jackie was probably one of the nicest people you would ever want to meet. My favorite memory is of the Quaker City String Band at the Christmas dinner every year at Underwood/Inspira. All eyes were usually on the captain, Bobby Shannon, but our eyes were always on Jackie since his wife, Lil, was our boss. They always put on a spectacular show and made everyone in the Christmas spirit. The holidays will never be the same. We always rooted for Quaker City, which was unusual for me because I was never into string bands. I became a fan because of Jackie. New Years Day will have even more meaning from now on. Bless all of them. He will be missed by so many. Carol Hansen
