

John F. Stuhr, Sr.

October 15, 1937 - August 2, 2025

John F. Stuhr, Sr. passed away on August 2, 2025 at the age of 87. Survived by his three children - John Stuhr, Jr. (Toni), Joseph Stuhr, Sr. (Andrea), and Jennifer Gilbert (Wes) - and his brother, Anthony Richardson of the United Kingdom. Proud grandfather of Dana Twardowski (Michael), Stephen Stuhr (Karly), Joseph Stuhr, Jr., Jayson Stuhr (Kaity), Andrew Stuhr, Becca Rigdon (Kyle) and Ally Gilbert. Great-grandfather of Lucas and Owen Twardowski and Ryker and Griffin Rigdon.

While born in New York City, John spent most of his childhood in Europe until the age of 18, when he was drafted into the US Army. This opportunity allowed him to be transferred back to the States, where he soon moved to Philadelphia following his discharge and established a family. John then became a Philadelphia Police Officer - something that he was proud of for the remainder of his life.

From the time John was very young, he was a traveling man. From the US to Europe to the Caribbean, John loved to travel the globe. But most of all, he loved traveling to Germany and immersing himself in the German culture since this was his father's country of origin. Outside of travel, John kept up on current events, enjoyed the soothing sounds of classical music, and got a thrill out of watching the international soccer games.
