“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Aunt El, Johnny, Dom and Tony. I have some great memories of Uncle John, waking up in Deptford to the sounds of Bobby Vinton and Carly Simon. I didnt say that it was 8am and Dom and I had been out very late the night before. May you all find some comfort and peace. Love, Dave, Linda and David

“ I am so sorry for your loss. My prayers will always be with all of you. May God Bless all of you and may he welcome John with open arms. He was a sweet man and he was an honest one especially when it came to his work. I will miss him if I have trouble with my television. The Deptford TV repairman is no more. May he rest in peace.
