

John H. Vogt

July 21, 1944 - December 2, 2024

John H. Vogt on December 2, 2024 of National Park. Age 80. Beloved husband of Marie Vogt (nee Wilson). Loving father of John H. Vogt, Jr. (Danene) of Philadelphia, Charles Vogt, Sr. (Crystal) of Cherry Hill, and Gina Vogt (Dennis) of Mullica Hill. Cherished brother of Helen DeAngelis (late John) of Bellmawr and Catherine McCullah (Larry) of California. Devoted grandfather of Charles, Jr., Alyssa, John, Justin, and Anthony. Cherished by many, including God daughter Denise Smith, loving uncle to many nieces and nephews. Will be deeply missed by many extended family as well as Brother and Sisters in law

John worked as a Truck Mechanic for Camden Iron and Metal. He was a proud member of Teamsters local 676. He enjoyed watching the Eagles, sitting on the patio, talking to neighbors, riding his bike, and walking through National Park. He loved the holidays and spending time with his family.

Services Private.

“ My sincere condolences to the Vogt family for this great loss! John was such a pillar of strength and love toward his family. Especially to my daughter, Crystal, with whom he welcomed with open arms to bring her into his fold. I can remember how excited Crystal was to meet the Vogt family and more excited to tell me what wonderful parents Charlie had. I knew she would always be in great hands! John was always quick to smile and make anyone feel at home. He will be greatly missed by all who love him! I will keep all of you in my prayers! Jesus must have wanted an angel for his Christmas tree!

“ Marie, family and friends of John.
I have some great memories of John when we all hung out at the National Park VFW, the few bike rides we shared and the back yard BBQ.

John's smile lit up the room along with his great personality. May he rest in peace.

He will be greatly missed by so many.

May the fond memories of John carry on in your hearts.
