“ I met Jose for the first time when he showed up at my HS graduation party. He and my stepfather worked together with the Deptford Police Department. He showed up with a huge smile, a giant hug, and a card. Since that day I’ve had a soft spot for Jose and I looked forward to each time I got to see him. I’ve seen him a few times in the last year, normally when I’d crash the police get togethers when Andy was in town and he always had a smile and a hug for me. I’m so glad I got to talk to him for a bit last year. He was a good man and when I found out he had passed, it hurt my heart. My heart goes out to his wife, his children, and his parents. He will surely be hard to forget but cherish in all the great times you’ve had together.

“ Jose was a wonderful man and good friend. He will be sorely missed. My fondest memories of Jose were training him as a new Deptford Police Officer. His dedication to his family was always a topic of conversation and he always managed to keep everyone laughing, even in the toughest of times.

May God and Saint Anthony care for your soul my friend. I hope that his family finds peace in all the great memories of him as a loving a devoted family man.

Blue Lights are shining bright for all those you served and helped. Jose lived the true meaning of police work, providing outstanding public service to all, equally. He treated all with dignity and was never too busy to help a person in need. I can recall countless stories of his generosity and charity.

I am a better person for having known Jose and sincerely privileged to have shared time with him.

Rest in peace Jose!

“ We met Jose through our children. We spent many days together at the soccer fields and many more at school functions. He was always kind. He always had a smile and positive words to share. Jose was one of the good guys and we are very sad to hear of his passing. We were lucky to have known him. Bill, Audrey, Ben, Brittany and Samantha Smith
