

Joseph C. Azzinaro

November 9, 1967 - August 9, 2018

Joseph C. Azzinaro “Joe Azz” on August 9, 2018 of Woodbury Heights. Age 50. Loving husband of Charisse (nee Montone). Son of the late Charles J. Azzinaro, Sr. and Dolores (nee Rose). Beloved father of Dimitri Viccharelli of Texas, Alyssa Azzinaro of Marlton and Bianca Azzinaro of Marlton. Brother of Marie Farney (Steven) of Erial, Dolores “Dee” Gill (Robert) of Deptford, Kathleen DeWitt (Donald) of Hardingville and the late Charles J. Azzinaro, Jr. Son-in-law of Joseph F. Montone and Linda Rose of Deptford. Brother-in-law of Joseph A. Montone (Tia) of Washington Township. Also survived by his Cat Nemo and missed by his dog Nine Girl.

Azz worked as a caulker, pointer, and cleaner for the BAC Union Local 1 in Philadelphia. He enjoyed Oak Valley Viking Football, was an avid history buff and especially loved the USA. Joe was proud of his Adidas collection, loved growing tomatoes and blueberries in his garden and going to the gym. Joe believed second chances made life worth living.

Relatives and friends are invited to a visitation on Thursday, August 16, 2018 from 6pm to 8pm at Infant Jesus Parish at St. Margaret’s RC Church, 3rd & Beech Sts., Woodbury Hts., NJ 08097.

“ I remember a skinny fun loving kid who was my cousin .It's so sad to reunite with Joe's sisters and kids at a time like this. But if any good can come from a tragedy of this nature it should be the realization that life is too short. Familys should always be in touch.My deepest sympathies to all of Joe's family. God bless all of you.

“ There are no words to express the sadness we all are feeling right now, Joseph was a unique individual that loved his family. His loss is so profound, it is difficult to even comprehend the days, weeks, months, years ahead of us without him. To all those that loved him, I thank you! My sisters and I are tough Azzinaro girls and will do our best to provide support to Charisse, his step son, his daughters and his nieces and nephews as Joe would expect no less from us. Learn from this everyone try to put the daily stress of life aside sometimes and spend time with those you love..... RIP my little brother until we meet again Love Kathleen slipped away into the next room. Nothing has happened. Everything remains exactly as it was. I am I, and you are you, and the old life that we lived so finally together is untouched, unchanged. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by the old familiar name. Speak of me in the way which you always used. Put no difference into your tone. Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be over the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without an effort, without the ghost of a shadow upon it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was. There is absolute and unshakable continuity. What is this death but a negligible accident? Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere near you, just round the corner. All is well.

“ Some precious memories with our closest friend Joe and the love of his life Charisse my childhood best friend. He will be missed greatly

“ Joe and Charisse and myself grew up together in the same neighborhood. Joe was always a gentleman and I have so many memories of hanging together at the dead end and fire lake just to name a few, not to mention my dear friend Charisse the love of his life always. My heart is filled with sadness at the news of your passing as you were taken way too soon. Until we meet again, rest in peace my dear friend.

“ Our Hearts Go Out to the entire Azzinaro Family!

The personal loss of Joe here on Earth; is with Great Sorrow. Although, not long enough! We feel especially privileged to have had him, in our lives for almost 20 years. He will be deeply missed and we pray that both, family and friends find some comfort in reminiscing of days-gone-by; bring Peace, by re-calling all of the wonderful and great times that were had together, leaving memories that will be forever etched into our hearts.

Especially touching, is remembering how Joe would light-up, when ever he spoke about the "Love-Of His Life," Charisse. His Love for her was undeniable...what most could only wish to experience in a lifetime and what love stories are written about. Their years together, were filled with life's love's lessons, of living life; for and in the moment. Loving both the beach and sun, they traveled often and experienced life to the fullest. While also spending time, turning their home into an Oasis, which in the end; has become a place of sanctuary.

Equally blessing, was to hear him speak about his children, they were the 'Light-Of His Life," having his girls visit on the weekends was always something he looked forward too! He was proud of the young ladies his baby girls had become. But, prayed a lot more as they grew older, especially remembering them getting their licenses and Joe taking them out for driving lessons...Although, the girls were always in his prayers... He prayed a lot harder on those driving days!

And, it goes without saying...A praise given to Joe's family and dear friends, who have been an incredible support system and life line for both Charisse and the family, during this time. Joe would have expected nothing less from the Wonderful people that he had surrounded himself around, here on earth. Again, thank you for being there.

Joe had many friends, who could attest to his demeanor...that of one, who outwardly, being a rugged Man's Man; while unique unto his own, he possessed one of the gentlest of hearts and kindness of spirits.

As Joe watches down, to comfort and protect his family, we pray for hearts to be filled with amazing, loving memories such as ours. And, if we "BELIEVE," then we must already know that Joe's already building/engineering better clouds in heaven.

*Where or how does one begin to, or start...to say Goodbye!?
So Joe, this is not good-bye; it's farewell, until we meet again!
God Bless with Love and Prayers,
The Stuart Family
