

Joseph J. D'Andrea, III

September 16, 1962 - January 3, 2022

Joseph J. D'Andrea, III "Joe" on January 3, 2022 of Franklinville. Age 59. Cherished son of Patricia Tartaglia of Franklinville and Joseph J. D'Andrea, II of Haddon Twp. Loving father of Joseph D'Andrea of Franklinville, Anthony D'Andrea (Kimberly) of Mantua, Danielle D'Andrea (Vincent) of Pine Hill, Jacob D'Andrea of Franklinville and the late Jennifer D'Andrea. Beloved brother of Michael D'Andrea (Amber) of Delaware, Karen Burns (Jim) of Haddon Twp. and Maryann Brennan of Collings Lakes. Devoted grandfather of Abigail Lynn and Mila Shay. Also survived by many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Joe was a boilermaker for Local 13 in Philadelphia. He was fearless and impactful. He enjoyed traveling, even hitch hiking to Alaska, bringing back stories that would last a lifetime to share with his family and friends. He was lover of nature and an avid fisherman, spending most of the time in the water from Cape May to Key West. He dedicated his whole life to his kids. When he wasn't taking them on their first trips to Disney, he was pulling them through the snow-filled fields on the 4-wheeler. When he wasn't in the kitchen showing one of them how to cook, he was in the woods teaching another one to shoot their first buck. When he wasn't showing them how to build the family deck, he was having a live classic rock concert in the living room. When he wasn't teaching them how to drive, he was helping them to reel in their first striper. Recently, nothing was greater than seeing the light in him shine when he was with his granddaughters. He will be missed, but his family is at peace knowing he completed his mission here and can now reunite with his first baby girl Jenny Lynn.

Services Pending at a later date.
