“ Joe and I did not see each other often, but I do have fond childhood memories of him. When Joe and his family lived in South Philly, we would see each other quite a bit. One day, Joey was pulling me in a wagon and his brother George was pushing the wagon. George couldn't keep up, so he jumped in the wagon and held on to me while Joe pulled us as fast as he could up and down Lee St. A few years ago, we were talking on the phone about when we were kids and how fast time goes by. I'll always love him and I'll never forget him.

“ Joe was always willing to reach out to people new in recovery and went the extra mile helping others. He had a boyish exuberance for life, and wasn't shy about sharing it with others. His service to his fellowship was a wonderful example of "How it Works". He will be missed by all...anon

“ Prayers for Joe's Family, for Peace and Serenity, Joe was a Great Man, Joe and I attended several H&I commitments together. Joe Always Inspired Me with positive suggestion and direction and supplied Me with a Good outlook for things to come. He also told Me and taught Me how to look at Life and things with a different view. Didn't get to see Joe much after a time due to My travels, but I'll cherish the Memory of a Friend indeed who Inspired and Helped Many. God Bless You Brother, Jimmy Red
