“ Hi Pops. Thought this would get easier but it has not. Look out the window at times and think I will see you coming in from the Garden you loved so much! I know you are with GOD and he needed you home but that does not make us miss you any less. Till the day we are together again, I love you! Joyce

“ Happy Easter Pops. Not the same without you here. Still look out the window and think you will walk up. It is getting warm now and it is not the same without you working in the yard. You will always be in our hearts and our memories. We know you are with your God and may he always hold you near. Love you always, Joyce, Jerry and kids.

“ Hi Pop. It has only been a few weeks and you are surely missed and loved. As we stay with Mom we speak to you every day. Some days are easier than others but we are getting by. Each day we told you we loved you and now we must add we miss you to that love you. Many times we look back at times when we were kids playing games with you. Well, I guess as time goes on it will be somewhat easier on the ones you left behind. I am so glad I was there when you passed on to be with loved ones gone before you. I will see you again someday. Love always Joyce

“ Our Family is very sad to hear of Uncle Joe' s passing. One thing I will never forget the summer that Aunt Sally and Uncle Joe had invited me to stay at the farm up north. He taught me to drive a tractor and shoot a gun. Aunt Sally and Uncle Joe and the family loved me like their own...I'll never forgot their kindness. Thank you Uncle Joe.. Your Loving Nephew Jeff

“ To the world's greatest grandfather, Pop, I just want to say thanks for being there for me throughout my life. You never failed in bringing a smile to my face. From all your story telling, your sense of humor, your singing and your contagious laugh and smile, I will miss it all. Right now I'm upset with the fact that you're gone, but I will forever cherish and remember all of the wonderful and special moments. I made a promise to you to take care of Mom and Nan, and I will try my best to make sure they're okay. I love you, Pop. You're forever my sunshine. -Ashley
