“ I am so very sorry for your family's loss. Your dad and I were cousins and grew up together. When we were young, we used to go over to the hospital across the street from his house and fly balsa wood planes. His mom and my mom were sisters. We were in his sister Dolores' wedding, I was her flower girl and we walked together. Your dad grew up with my husband, who lived down the street on Atlantic Ave. I met my husband when we were paired for your dad's first wedding and married fourteen months later. I was a nurse and your dad used to come into my facility occasionally and we would have coffee. I don't remember the last time I saw him, but we were friends on Facebook until he stopped posting on it. I messaged him about my Joe's passing three years ago and that was the last time I heard from him. He was a great guy and now he and my Joe are probably hanging out again. May God wrap His arms around you and give you comfort. Rest in Peace, Joey. 💔😭

I am Dolores & Richard's daughter. I remember going to see the Tulini's. It is sad that I see your memories on Uncle Joe's obit. I also have memories of the hospital across the street. We use to walk the fence. I am also a widow, love is eternal and and life is enriched by the memories we hold dear.
