

Joseph A. Mangano

August 5, 1930 - November 25, 2020

Joseph A. Mangano “Joe” on November 25, 2020 of Deptford, formerly of Gloucester. Age 90. Loving husband for 65 years of Jean F. Mangano (nee Palumbo). Beloved father of Josephine Mangano. Cherished brother of Josephine Polizzi (the late George), Dorothy Bonadies (the late Joseph), Rita Lawson (the late Jerome) and the late Jean DeCandia (the late Lawrence). Dear uncle to many nieces and nephews.

Joe had a big heart and loved spending time with his family. He was the owner of Gloucester Cold Cuts and was known as “Hoagie Joe”. Joe loved surprising the kids with candy and treats. He enjoyed reading the newspaper and playing the lottery. He will be missed deeply by his family and friends.

Services private at the request of the family.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Leukemia and Lymphoma, P.O. Box 22447, New York, NY 10087 or www.lls.org.

“ Joe was an exceptional man. He always made you feel special when you entered and had so many interesting stories to tell. I remember how proud he was of his daughter's art posted on all his walls. He would travel to the local farms to give his customers the freshest produces the the area had to offer. He loved his family and I know he will be missed by both Jean and Josephine. Rest in Pease Joe in God's arms.

“ So sorry for your loss. Hoagie Joe made my hoagies for over 10 years. When we moved out of Gloucester, we came once the month. The line used to be down the block to get in. He was so kind to my kids, always making time to talk to them no matter how busy he was. It was a sad day when he closed the cold cut store. I always think of him when I'm in Gloucester. May he rest in peace.

“ Very sad to hear of Joe’s passing—he truly was a Gloucester legend! Knew of Joe probably 60 years though I haven’t seen him in decades. His pleasant personality & that blend of customer service is a thing of the past. My father, grandmother, & later my brother & I were faithful customers & it was a sad day when Joe eventually sold the business. God bless Joe, Jean & Josie thanking them all for allowing me to be a small part of Joe’s wonderful life 🥹🙏❤️

“ Saw Joe about a year ago. He’ll always be Hoagie Joe to me. His famous line: “I make it a special just for you!” Great guy to have known. My condolences to the family. Mom, Pop, and my brother are probably in line already waiting for their Heavenly Hoagie.

“ I worked for Joe in 61-62 I was 15 we would take rides to the racetrack and on the way home we would stop at the Water Wheel in Woodbury one time he said Johnny I'm gonna get you a beer so he took a magic marker and put a mustache on me and put a hat on my head and low and behold we were having beers together I love that man

“ So sorry for your loss. I will always remember that whenever I would go in to his deli for a hoagie, he would say “I made that special just for you” and I always felt that he sincerely meant it.
