“Daddy wrote a poem he wanted me to share. It has been edited a few times over the years but he wrote it and made sure I was to read it at his memorial service. I didn't get that opportunity however I always keep a promise so here it goes now:
I was the only one who knew about this and my son Jimmy.
Mark thee well, what only time will tell
Of days gone by, both good and bad
Some so good, some so sad
But when all is said and done
I will know that I have won!
Proud of the things I've done
One of them a daughter
And two sons and grandchildren a few
A wife so true, if only you knew
The things I've done

“ Our deepest condolences to the Pfeiffer family. Our Uncle Joe will be greatly missed. We enjoyed and will remember the Easter celebrations in FL and Christmas Eve at our house. The boys always looked forward to hearing about the latest gadget that he discovered and any interesting coins he had in his pocket. He is now with our Dear Aunt Pat and that brings us comfort.
