

Joseph A. Toms

October 22, 1987 - October 29, 2020

Joseph A. Toms (Joey), was tragically taken from us on October 29th, 2020 at 33. Joey was born and raised in Glendora, NJ and lived in Philadelphia. Loving son of Debra Ann Pfeiffer of Williamstown. Preceded by Joseph Toms of West Virginia. Beloved brother of James Toms (Blair) of Philadelphia, Julie Toms (Gerald) of West Deptford and Kimberly Williams of Louisiana. Devoted grandson of Joseph W. Pfeiffer, Sr. and the late Patricia Ann (nee Hansen) of Williamstown, many adoring Aunts and Uncles. He will be missed by long-time friend/soulmate Bianca Franceschetti. He is also survived by his nieces and nephews in Louisiana. He will be especially missed by Olivia. Joey's love for King (his dog), was his greatest Pride and Joy.

Joey was a man of many talents, none more so than his ability to make an impression, a friend or a memory. His passion was outdoor activities and sports. He excelled in any sport he participated in. Joey had a smile that could light up a room and he will be missed by ALL who knew and loved him. Anyone who has had the privilege to meet him, most likely has a story to tell. He loved and cared for his family more than himself. Whether or not you agreed with him, he always stuck with his convictions. He was the most genuine persons you would have ever known.

“ I want to send my deepest sympathy to Joey's family. Such a nice kid to have been taken away from so many that loved him. There really aren't any words that could be said to comfort you at this time. But just know that Joey made an impact on everyone he met. He will be deeply missed.
