

Joseph T. Wilson

July 1, 1961 - April 27, 2025

Joseph T. Wilson on April 27, 2025 of Oak Valley. Age 63. Beloved husband of MaryLou Wilson (nee Boyle) for 37 years. Beloved brother of Debra Truhan (Robert) and Donna Tucci (Joseph). Brother-in-law of William Boyle (Theresa), Robert Boyle (Susan) and Larry Boyle. He is survived by many nieces and nephews. He had a special connection with niece Jennifer Gray (Stephanie). Joe was predeceased by his parents Jack and Margaret Wilson, and his in-laws William, Anne and Barbara Boyle and his nephew Robert Truhan, III. Joe will be greatly missed by many friends, especially his Spartan Family.

Joseph was a true Deptford Spartan through and through graduating in 1979. Joe's favorite memories were being part of the Deptford Spartan Football Team and catching the winning touchdown from Quarterback and longtime friend Danny Greene to bring the State Championship home to Deptford in 1978. Joe enjoyed golf and softball in his younger years as well as basketball.

Joe was a former Deptford School Board Member and Past President. Joe also enjoyed being part of the Democrat team in Deptford Township. Joe had many jobs from bouncer to running Ron Jaworki's Valleybrook. Joe finally settled in working for the county, working for the GCIA until his retirement.

“ Joe my brother thank you for your big laugh and sense of humor always. Football aside even for our Championship, it is the last few years at our Spartan Alumni breakfast that I really got to know and love you as a brother as you battled through medical challenges. Love and prayers to the family for this loss. Lamont

“ I can still to this day see Joe catching the pass from Danny, running to the end zone and scoring. I was so proud of him. I am very proud to know he still accepted me as a friend after so many years. Ghost to the post. Joe we love you.
