“ I believe this was the same Judy Bishop I met at a dinner discussion group shortly after the millennium at the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Princeton, a group that had been chaired by the late professor emeritus Enoch Durbin. Judy sat with me during this event. It was a pleasant experience.

“ I am so sorry for you loss. Cousin RuthAnn just told me today about Judy’s passing. Take comfort in knowing she’s up there with the love of her life, Hop. She was a wonderful woman who always had room in her heart for her family no matter how long she had not seen them.

“ Judy was the mother of our Elvis Facebook group run by the amazing Ron Cade. She was kind and so welcoming to everyone. Rons tribute today was heard all over the world by thousands and was honestly incredible.....she was a unique lady who will be missed so much.

Sending condolences to you all from Scotland.

“ Dearest Family and Friends,
You do not know me, but I had known Judy for many years playing different games on fb to keep our brains ticking. Judy was a wonderful lady and will be sadly missed by all. I live in the United Kingdom England, Such a shame we are so far away, my thoughts will be with you all on this sad day. My hubby also knew Judy too. He also sends his deepest heartfelt sympathy. Will all ways remember you. Sweet Dreams.

“ I can not express my shock on hearing of Judy's passing.. She was such a sweet caring lady, never had the opportunity to meet her in person, but I felt she was a very dear close friend. We spoke often on FB and we were fans of the Elvis & Friends Show which made us sisters and family , (so to speak),, such a kind soul . we shared some laughs and good thoughts . I will miss her dearly... Rest In Peace dear sweet Judy.. I extend my deepest condolences to the entire family.. She will be missed by all..
