

Justin Heath Linnabary

February 12, 1976 - October 13, 2025

Justin Heath Linnabary, 49, of Deptford NJ, passed away on October 13, 2025, after his battle with cancer. Justin was born on February 12, 1976 to Sharman Linnabary in Columbus, Ohio. After Justin graduated from Desales High School in 1994, he went on to study at The Ohio State University.

He started one of his first jobs delivering for Donatos Pizza, kickstarting his career with the company, which got him on the road to manager, and ultimately leading him to New Jersey. Justin met his wife Juliette at Donatos where they both worked at the time. He later changed his career from the food service industry to banking working his way up as a branch manager for Citizens and Wells Fargo before settling in as a VP of business banking at PNC.

Justin and Juliette went on to have three children, Jack-Thomas, James-Andrew and Julianna Hope. Over the years Justin enjoyed sharing his passions with friends and family, including being a fan of The Ohio State Buckeyes, the Philadelphia Phillies, and his favorite band, U2. He had a wealth of knowledge in movies and music that he loved sharing with his children. Justin was a pillar in the community being actively involved with all his children's activities, including being a Boy Scout troop leader, handling some PA duties for the Deptford Township High School marching band, and supporting numerous other community activities. But of all the things Justin did in his life the most important thing to him was his children, he always said the best thing ever did was being the dad to his kids.

Justin was predeceased by his Grandparents: Vincent and Charlotte Linnabary, step-father: Jeff Falk, Uncle Lewis Linnabary and Daughter Julianna Hope Linnabary. He is survived by his wife Juliette Linnabary, his sons Jack-Thomas and James-Andrew; his mother Sharman Linnabary; siblings Jessica, Jordan, John and Jay; aunts and uncles Jessica, Barbara, Trisha and Ronald; his mother in law Victoria Falocco, father in law and his wife Thomas Falocco and Pamela Koharchik, his brothers and sisters sister in law Andrew, Adriana, Mark, Rylie, and Lexi and his loving nieces and nephews .

We remember Justin for his contagious smile. He was a child with great mannerisms that he carried into adulthood. He was so loved by his mother, grandmother and his cut up aunt Jessica. We are saddened that he had to leave his family and friends. All of you are in our thoughts and prayers. Love, Bob, Velsie and Miranda

A few years ago, Justin approached me to ask if his cub scout den could look at Troop 7 with the desire to join the Troop. I was Scoutmaster at the time. Justin was a likeable person and I could tell that he loved his cub scouts and their family. He had an infectious smile and always laughed at my jokes. He told me which of the kids were picky eaters and which parents were likely to help. Justin, the parents and Cub Scouts went camping with us and Justin said, "All nine kids and parents want to join Troop 7." Soon Justin volunteered to be Troop Committee Chair and Treasurer. Troop 7 and I spent many nights sitting next to the campfire with Justin and listening to his stories and jokes. I believe that the best way to remember Justin is to look at his friends, family and Troop 7. We will see him reflected in their faces and hear him when they laugh and tell stories. Justin, Rest in Peace. We love you more now than ever.
