“ Kevin, you became a part of our family in Machias, Maine. You showed a love for the Lord and for this community. When I think of the few months we all got to know you, it was a special time. Your love of cooking and helping others shone through. These photos were from the benefit supper for Arise Addiction Recovery. You whipped up many batches of Grandma’s gravy. To your family, Kevin was well loved here in Maine. We tried to make him a Pats fan! Haha, not really! I told him, “we’re not trying to make everyone Pats fans, we’re trying to make you Jesus fans!” He loved Jesus. My husband and I send our condolences and our prayers. So very sorry for your loss. We considered him a dear friend. Last Christmas he made us some of the scrapple you all sent him. Sending our love. Jen & Wayne Wood

“ I can't put how I feel about Kevin in 1 memory. I will say that he is one of the most caring and selfless people I have ever met. He always wanted to make sure everyone around him was happy. He would do anything for you and through all of his trials and tribulations he always had a pure heart. I never saw Kevin lose his temper in my life. He was a caring, loving individual. Athletically, he was gifted. He excelled at football, basketball, and baseball. I will miss him and this hurts my heart to have to write this. He was my little buddy and that's how I will always remember him. I love you #31. Til we meet again.
