Such a lovely video of some of the wonderful times that Lee had with family and friends. It was an honor to be a guest at their wedding. Lee was a sweet, caring and generous man and will be missed by the many who knew and loved him.

A kind, gentle soul, always so welcoming to Marge's friends; devoted husband. My grandson Ashton always sought him out during our visits. He loved playing with "Mr. Lee". May his soul rest in eternal peace.

“ I always felt loved by my Grandpop. A year later and I still can't wait to see him again, smiling at me. That love has gotten me through rough times and will for rough times ahead.

“ Marge, my condolences go out to your and Mr Lee's family. I remember Mr Lee being kind, laid back and gentle and always calling out "babe" to you to see if you wanted anything. He and I used to talk about fixing stuff whenever I was in his presence, I think back to you all coming to visit me in Ohio and picking you up in Pittsburgh to then take an additional 3 hour drive, that trip provides great memories for me. Peace and Love Always!

“ One of my finest memories of course involves my twins. They were due around his birth date, but they came a month earlier. So, he and my cousin David came to Maryland to bring me two new cribs. If you know their personalities, you know watching them putting cribs together was hysterical!! David kept saying “Uncle Lee, you gotta look at the instructions!” Dad said, “By the time you read the instructions I’ll be done with the cribs!” Three hours later my children laid in their beds.

“ I am having a hard time with the loss of my father. Once again we lost another branch on the Satterfield Family Tree. I will never have the strength I once had before February 18, 2021. I lost my "Daddy"! No matter how long its been when you lose a loved on to death, we will always have that void. However, I still have fond memories that come to mind and I just enjoy those memories and the smile that replaces the tears.

Remember at Romans 6:23 "God gives the gift of everlasting life. Isaiah 35:5,6 states, "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry be anymore. The former things have passed away.

I look forward to seeing him again, a little while longer.

Isaiah 35:5,6 reads..."At that time the eyes of the blind will be opened, and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped. At that time the lame will leap like the deer, and the tongue of the speechless will shout for joy..."

“ When I was in 5th grade I was a semi finalist for a spelling bee so I got to go to the next round at a different school. I felt very overwhelmed backstage because kids had their parents there quizzing them and it was very tense. I was nervous when I went on stage, but then when I looked out at the audience I saw my Grandpop come in, sit next to my mom and smile up at me. He was there for me, he was proud of me and throughout my entire life Grandpop has always been there for me. I didn't win. Didn't even come close, but I will never forget how I felt when my Grandpop looked up at me and smiled. I love my Grandpop.
