Len, it's been awhile since we've seen one another but when we did it felt like yesterday was the last time. Friends from Montclair forever I'll cherish all the memories. Lucky to have those special times ,I'll never forget you and the bond we somehow kept thru our lives. I'm sure we'll meet on the other side, save a warm spot for me. Not in the cold garage. Always Love Ya Len. R.I.P.my friend xoxo

“ Still can't believe you're gone. What a shock. We really enjoyed having you as a neighbor interacting with your family . Watching and being with your girls, you all become family with us. My grandsons enjoyed being with your girls as much as I did. You always had great picnics. Leonard I know you knew how much we loved you. Devon and Taylor, do you remember me paying you a nickel for every poop you cleaned up in my yard from Cocoa and Cookie? I know you two know how much we love too💕🥺🥺
