“ *Dear Murphy and family:
I'm so very sorry for the loss of your beautiful Mother. I didn't know her long, but she was very kind to me as you were when we met at Lisa's home a year ago. I know little, but I do know she adored her children and family.
Stay strong. God Bless you all.
Love, Mary*

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.”
Matthew 5:4
What does that mean? Will God provide comfort when you're hurting so badly you feel like you can't take another breath? Will He sustain you and carry you through this time?
He will provide what you need, but ONLY if you ask Him. He does not barge in on your life and take charge without you asking Him to do so. If you want comfort, ask Him.
Love you Sherri.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of Lillian. I too have experienced that deep pain of loss. so I look for ways to comfort others. The Bible describes God as "the God of all comfort". Thinking about His promise to do away with sickness, death, tears and pain; and to reunite us with our loved ones really does bring much comfort. (Psalm 34:18, Revelation 21:4-5) I pray thoughts like these and happy memories bring warmth to your hearts. My sincere condolences

“ My condolences to the family and friends of Lil. Peace and comfort to you during this time of grief.
Lil, in our last conversation I said we had some good times in Croydon and your last words to me were "YES WE DID. AND WE WILL HAVE MANY MORE"! I'm sure you'll be right in front welcoming soldiers home to their afterlife. RiP, my friend.

“ Our sympathy to the family of Lil. " do not stand by my grave and weep I am NOT there I do not sleep I'm a thousand winds that blow I am The Diamond glistening on the snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn's rain. when you awake in the morning hush I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds and circle fight I am the soft star that shines at night. Do not stand by my grave and cry I am NOT there I did not die.
