“ I'm saddened to learn of Lillian's passing. When I arrived at Archer, Greiner, Hunter & Read fresh out of law school in 1957, Lillian was the receptionist/timekeeper/billing clerk/office supply clerk and whatever else the office needed to be done. She was dependable, loyal, personable and always had a ready smile (sometimes a devilish grin), and though not old enough to be my mother, she was like a mother hen to me until I learned the ropes. I extend my deepest sympathy to all her family members. Sincerely, Fred Rohloff
