"My Sister Linda "
She had a heart of gold, and growing up together she was a feisty,out going fun loving girl ! Linda was any thing but shy. She loved to dance and had numerous friends.
As a teenager,she visited American Bandstand
a few times with our cousin
Cathleen. They had dancing, and roller skating adventures together.
Not surprising us at all ,there she was ,as promised before leaving the house to visit "American Bandstand", said you'll see me up front of the the TV. Camera!!
This show back in the 50's was telavised across America, "there she was fast
dancing with our cousin"!
She made those "so called - regulars" look clumsy! Lol
She of course was seen more than once ! As a teenager, Linda always dressed and looked sharp.
Joe Montone,than her boyfriend, was crazy in love with Linda . Linda with a svelte figure & long straight dark hair was Joe's steady.
Joe got drafted and went to Vietnam. Thankfully, he got through the war. Linda and Joe became ,Mr.&Mrs. Montone. Fifty nine years of love and devotion ! A real ♥♥ Love story . I Love you Linda !

“ Linda (Grammy) will always be remembered for the most beautiful smile that lit up the room and she was the sweetest woman there could ever be! She cared about everyone around her and always spoke beautiful words of encouragement to all those who knew her! She was a like a mom to everyone around her! She will be very sadly missed! May she rest in peace and may God bless her and the Montone family. Heaven has gained a beautiful angel!

“ Linda was a caring woman. I appreciated her praying for me and welcoming me in her home and feeding me. My favorite younger years were sitting at their dining room table and eating , telling stories and laughing. I loved watching her bless and make her Easter pies before putting in the oven. Some of my best teen years as well as letting me stay the night before my wedding and hosting the bridal party at her home for pictures. Linda a beautiful soul inside and out who comforted me when I lost my own mother. May you watch over your great family and rest in peace. Thank you for being so kind to me.
