“ Kenny, Kelly, Kimmy and Kate, We are so sorry to hear about your Mom. We have been out of touch for so many years so it is a shock to hear this. Please accept our Heartfelt Sympathy. We had a friendship for over forty years and Linda is still remembered with Love and Great Affection. Our fondest memory is sleeping over night on New Years Eve and waking up to home made waffles. She will always be remembered as a wonderful woman and remain in our hearts. If we can help in any way, please don't hesitate to let us know. God be with you all. Love, Aunt Jo Rita and Uncle Chal

“ Linda,
I will miss you for the rest of my life because you were such a great part of my life, since we both began. Hard to picture the future without you in it. We may have had our bad times but I knew the love and bond was always there.

“ I'm truly sorry to hear about Linda's passing. We worked together at First Pennsylvania Bank then Cores States Bank. She had a great sense of humor and adventure.
Rest in peace Linda.
