Hey Uncle,

Just wanted to say I miss you popping up on me at work. Sitting here bored at my desk and I googled your name and found this page. It would always crack me up when my coworkers would say "Um there's some guy here asking for you, he said he wont deal with anyone else" And I always knew who it was, I'd find you down the aisle messing with some random part. Love you Uncle

“ So many great things to say! This family became my 2nd family for many years. Mr. Redington helped my Dad get my first bike at Pep Boys in the 70s. He always made me laugh & I know that he made an impression on every person that he met. A great guy who will be missed!! 😍

“ I will always remember "Louie" at Pep Boys, helping Tod with parts, repairs whatever he needed. We even visited his home once upon a time, his children were little. He had such a sense of humor and was so friendly. I am now 67 years old and I have always remembered him. I also saw him once in later years at a West Deptford football game. I was so happy to see him. My prayers with his family and I know I will always remember Louie Reddington - a great man!
