“ My family and I are truly sorry for your loss, and we are sending some words of comfort from God’s Word, the Bible. Isaiah 25:8 gives the assurance that, soon, Jehovah God “will swallow up death forever.” Yes, the day will soon come when “death will be no more.” (Revelation 21:4) May you find comfort in what God will accomplish in the near future. Until then, you will remain in our thoughts & prayers.

“ It’s very hard to bear the loss of someone so dear. I know there is little that one can say or do to take away all your pain, but please know you are in the thoughts and prayers of many. May every loving memory be like the warming rays of sun which help to bring some comfort from your pain and sorrow. May God grant you comfort and peace. With heartfelt condolences. Ecclesiastes 1:4; Micah 4:4; John 11:11, 21-25
