“ My Beautiful, strong, independent, Mama, what can I say? Fondest memory is at Christmas when I was young girl, she bought me a rub-a-dub dolly and some pajamas that were deep blue. After taking a bath with my doll and putting those new pj's on, the dye from pj's got all over the dolls face. My mom sat up and scrubbed that doll all night because I was so sad and crying. She never had much, but what she did have, she gave freely to her children. Love you forever Mom!
