

Madeline Jean Andaloro

July 13, 1961 - November 17, 2014

Madeline Jean Andaloro "Maddie" of Woodbury, formerly of Westville Grove, 53, passed November 17, 2014 surrounded by loved ones. Maddie is predeceased by her loving parents Joseph F. and Mary T. Andaloro (nee Dinnini) of Westville and her brother John Andaloro of Hammonton. She is survived by her caring sister, Josephine Gazzola and her brother-in-law, John Gazzola, with whom she lived in Woodbury for the past eight years. Maddie is also survived by countless cousins, aunts and uncles; she was a cherished beloved Aunt to Patricia Gazzola Groban (Matthew) of Hoboken, John Gazzola of Woodbury, Mary, Julie and Johnny Andaloro of Hammonton. Maddie graduated from Archbishop Damiano School in Westville Grove in 1975 and attended St. John of God Sheltered Workshop thereafter. She continued on at the Abilities Center of Southern New Jersey for eight years before ending her career at The ARC of Gloucester County. She was a regular participant in Special Olympics events, member of Girl Scout Troop #236 and an attendant of mass at Most Holy Redeemer Church.

“ Please accept my deepest condolences for your loss. I know the grief and heartache can at times be overwhelming. As you cherish fond memories, please find comfort in God's reassuring words at Revelation 21:4, 5 which mentions that He will soon end all sickness, death, pain and sorrow. What a wonderful day that will be!

“ Madeline will certainly be missed. I was Madeline's Case Manager at Abilities Solutions (formally Abilities Center). I remember her vividly and very much enjoyed working with her. My condolences to her family. You will be in my thoughts.
Sincerely,
Amy Cohen-Soulliard

“ My deepest sympathy to you in the passing of Madeline. I remember her coming to our dental office with your parents, who were such nice people, and then with you. She was always a delight. I know you will miss Maddie. God bless you all. "Miss Patty"

“ Maddy was so special. She was truly an angel and I will miss her so much. Her laughter was everything. When she laughed, I laughed. It was so infectious. I love you maddy.
