

Margaret M. DeVillasanta

May 22, 1952 - May 31, 2021

Margaret “Margie” M. DeVillasanta (Malesich), 69, joined the Lord on May 31, 2021. Born May 22, 1952 to James and Bertha Malesich (Collaretti) in Camden, New Jersey, Margie is the second of five siblings, Jean Bialoskorski (Norbert), Barbara Zulawski (Arty), Teresa Nate (David) and James Malesich (Julia). Beloved daughter-in-law of the late Shirley DeVillasanta.

Margie was married in 1974 and had three sons, Donald DeVillasanta (Lianna), Steven DeVillasanta (Katherine), and Kevin DeVillasanta (Maureen). Margie dedicated her life to the upbringing of her three boys. As a single mother, Margie made sure that her sons felt her love and support by attending every event great and small as their biggest fan. Margie always stressed the importance of family and togetherness by having weekly family dinners with way too much food, vacations with extended family and holidays with as much family as possible. Her happiest moments were spent with family.

Margie was a doting grandmother to six grandchildren, Abigail, Delaney, Rowan, Amelia, Jacob and Baby DeVillasanta due in June. Margie aka “Grandmom,” always found time for her grandchildren, spoiling them with copious amounts of chocolate, indulging them with pretzels, and showering them with unconditional love. Nothing was sweeter than the universal outcry of “Grandmom!” when she walked in the room.

Margie leaves behind an extended family of nieces and nephews: Julia, Lisa, Christopher, Michael, Andrea, Jonathan, Jenna, Ryan, Christian, Hayley, and Hannah and numerous grand nieces and nephews. All of which held a special place in her heart.

Margie's personality was one of self-sacrifice, joy, and practical jokes. There usually wasn't a favor that you asked of Margie that she wasn't willing to do. Margie was always there for those who needed her. While we can sing the praises of her giving nature, Margie had a devilish side too and liked to prank her family on occasion. Her siblings would recount events of her antics frequently and that child-like demeanor continued into adulthood.

Margie was a faithful and dedicated woman to the Catholic Church. Attending mass weekly, Margie instilled the importance of Christ in her sons and chose to help spread the word of God by teaching CCD for ten years.

I'm so very sorry to hear about Margie's passing. My love and prayers go out to the family. But we must remember with this great loss and sorrow there is also a greater happiness in knowing that she is now with her Lord and Mom and Dad.

“ I have so many wonderful childhood memories of Margie. She was always ready for mischief and laughter. I spent many happy days with the Malesich girls and it was always such a treat for me. I am thankful she is no longer in pain. I pray that your happy memories are a comfort to all of you.

We extend our condolences to you and your family and to your brothers' and their families over the loss of your mom. The tribute video in memory of her was absolutely lovely. The photo of a "little one" hugging her leg was so endearing!
