“ To Jean and Sue,

This is my second attempt at writing something to you about Aunt Marge. I guess it didn't post. So, I will try again.

I will never forget your Mom. She had the best sense of humor. I will always remember her laugh. It was so good to see her when she came to visit Mom in her last days in the hospital. It was like old times. You will surely miss her and so will we.

Joyce and I had her on our prayer letter list so she could keep up with the news about our work for the Lord. She always sent us cards on special occasions.

Mom told me years ago she had accepted the Lord. We will see her again.

God bless you both and bring comfort to your hearts.

“ Aunt Margie was such an important part of my life. The joy and love that she gave me and my family, as well as everyone around her, will be forever with us. She loved making everyone laugh and boy did we laugh! While my heart is so very sad that I will no longer hear her voice or hang out with her, I know that she knew God and believed in Jesus. I rejoice in that. She is no longer in pain. We may have lost our faithful prayer warrior who prayed for all of us everyday, but Heaven gain another angel and what a sweet little angel she will be! We love and miss you Aunt Marge.

Love,
Rose
