“ Dear Margie,
My deepest sympathies go out to you and your family. No amount of words can take away your pain, but take some comfort that she is free of suffering and now watching over you.

“ I'll always remember the time we all spent together hanging out with Aunt Margie in her kitchen. Knowing that she is beyond all pain now gives me peace. She was a good friend, a very funny lady and a strong woman. We are all the better for having her in our lives.
