“ Sending lots of love and prayers to you all. I thank God my kids and I got a chance a few years ago to finally meet Aunt Peg. I had talked to her many times on the phone throughout the years but had never met her until then. My son was very close with my Grandpa and the first time he saw Aunt Peg he couldn't believe how much she looked like Pops. We love you all and our thoughts are with you...

“ Deepest sympathy to all of you.
Aunt Peg was a very profound woman. She loved her family dearly.
She was truly a liberated woman before the Woman's Movement.
I will miss her phone calls and conversation.
We know that she no longer is suffering. May Rick, Bob, Debbie, Raymond and Joey have comfort they were able to complete her last wish. To be at home in her room with her kids.
She is in God's company along with her mom, dad, brothers and sister. We all memories of laughter . We are lucky to have another angel watching over us.
Love you Aunt Peg
