“ It has been a month since Marge passed away. I still find it very hard to believe she is gone. Marge, AKA Maureen, was one of my two best friends. She was the most giving and caring person I knew. Marge has taken her last trip. I will miss her forever.

“ I would like to send deepest sympathies to all of Marge's family. I met Marge over 10 years ago while working at JC Penney. I was a young college student at the time so Marge naturally became my bearer of good advice and ultimately a truly great friend. Last May, my husband and I were married in Maui. Marge not only helped to make this dream come true but she surprised us with a phone call when we landed to meet for drinks - in Maui!! This is how I will always remember Marge: spontaneous, selfless and smiling. She was one of a kind.

“ Dear Mike and Mark, I will always remember your mother for she was a wonderful, kind hearted, generous person. She was a pleasure to be around. She had a great sense of humor and a positive outlook. The thing I will remember the most is what a wonderful friend to my mother (Carol) she was. She was the most loving, generous, thoughtful and loyal friend anyone could ask for. She will miss by us and many. May she rest in peace. She will be in our hearts forever.

“ Marge was the sister I never had. How different my life would have been if we had never met. Mike and Mark my prayers are with both of you.

“ I am not in mourning for Maureen, I am in mourning for myself and my friends. I call Marge "Maureen" because she wanted me to call her Maureen. She has been a big part of my life for years. I love her. She gave to me and all she knew; but it was very hard to reciprocate. Yes, she gave much more than she received. I will miss her companionship in the physical sense but I know she will always be with me.

“ She was many things to all of us growing up. Much more than my friend's mother, she was also our mother. She kept us in line, guided us with our decisions and ultimately left an impression on each of us in her own special way. A beautiful woman that left us all to soon, she will be sadly missed. God's decision to take this angel away from us may break our hearts, but in the end, I am sure that she is still smiling and watching over us.

“ *My Mom, My friend.
I will always look back and smile when I think of our time together.
You are my hero and the inspiration for me to be a better man, a better father, a better partner, a better brother and a better person every single day.
You will always live through Marisa and will be with me forever.
Love, Mark XOXOXO*
