“ My Deepest sympathy to the family of Mrs. Powers. I had the pleasure of Transporting Margaret to her doctor appointments with her Transportation service. Every time I seen her I enjoyed her company. Growing up in Oak Valley myself, Margaret and I would always chat about who we knew and the old days. She was a wonderful lady and I will miss her truly. She always asked how my family was and spoke of her family. She spoke highly of her brother in Philly who she said took wonderful care of her. She loved her children and grandchildren greatly , often speaking about her one Grandson....My Shane. My condolences for your loss. Kari Kappler
