“ The ENTIRE Spross family has my deepest condolences at this time of grief. I worked with Peg for many years @ the IRS and no matter what was going on, she always was pleasant and delightful. I'm glad she was able to retire, and spend time with all of her family whom she always referred to as "HER WORLD." Rest in peace my friend!

“ Dear Chris, Chris and Stephanie and family. My heart is breaking for all of you. I am so sorry for your loss. Peg was a wonderful person. A great wife, Mom, Mother in law, and MomMom. She will be missed. I always enjoyed her company, weather it was just hanging out at Steph and Chris’s or at a family party. I will miss her. Cherish all the memories you each have. I know from experience, they will get you through the rough days ahead. Love you all. ❤️💔

“ Dear Chris,

Our hearts are aching for the loss of your beloved Peggy. She was certainly the life of any gathering with her great sense of humor and hardy laugh. During our Outer Bank vacations, the "gang" was certainly appreciative of her talented cooking skills as we other ladies bowed out of the kitchen while she assumed the role of Master Chef! The quality of her cooking was awesome while the worriment (for others) of quantity was no problem for her. She just "whipped out" her tasty dishes.

As the Spross matriarch, the importance of family was one of her strong traits--she was so proud and loved you all.

During these difficult days, we hope that you, Chris, Stephanie, Alyssa, young Chris, her siblings and in-laws, Gene and John, will find the faith and strength to endure Peggy's loss and to find joy in remembering all the happy times. I know that Peg would have wanted that for her family.

Sending prayers, love and hugs,

“ To Chris and the entire Spross and McCue families: I am deeply saddened by Margie's passing and wish you peace and comfort during this time. Margie had a way of putting a smile on your face. She was a wonderful person, a great cook, could always tell a good story and kept you laughing. She will be greatly missed. Love and condolences to all at this difficult time.

“ So very sorry for your loss. We have been family since our daughter married Chris 16 years ago. We shared our precious grandchildren Alyssa and Christopher together. Peg was a wonderful Mom Mom to our babies. A wonderful Mom and wife. She was also a wonderful mother in law to my daughter. Stephanie was so blessed to have Peg. Now the hard part begins. Learning to live without her. Please know that you are all in our thoughts and prayers and that you all have a special angel watching over you. Love you all. Nanette and John Grubb
