“ *Mom missing you ! Still hard to grasp this. I hope you are at peace.
Love you , Denise*

“ *Sorry I took so long mom, but my heart is so broken that I needed time to get my thoughts together. I know you are truly in a better place with all those who have gone before you and loved and missed you as we are loving and missing you now. But I believe that the physical world we live in is only our temporary home, and that we all do meet for eternal life together. That thought is what will give me the strength to carry on. And although it is very painful and difficult right now, I know that with time, we will all continue to laugh, and love, and live as you want us all to do.
I miss you and love you mom, but now we have another angel to help keep us safe.*
