Lin and I were very sorry to hear of your Mom’s passing, Mary. She was such a loving, caring woman and sharp as a tack even at 99 years old. She would sit in her front porch and always wave at Lin whenever he went by. And yes, she loved her scratch offs. I am so glad that you brought her over to see us a while ago. I know the hurt you are feeling right now is unbearable, but you have so many good memories of you and her that will never go away. RIP Mrs. Carey and give your son a BIG hug. Love, Lin and Cathy Couch
