“ Linda, Shirley and Sue, I was so saddened to hear of your mother's passing. She was a very sweet and loving woman and was a wonderful grandmother to us. I will always fondly remember to joy she brought to my grandfather George's life and I will always shed a tear for your mom everytime I hear Paul Simon's " Mrs. Robinson". I remember my grandfather always singing it to her.....your are in our thoughts and prayers. Gwen (Mary's daughter)Steve, Tyler and Cole

“ Always a beautiful smile with a warmth and love that came from her soul -- my life changed dramatically because of this lovely lady -- for that, and many other reasons, she will always have a very special place in my heart.

My dear "Saint Marion", (as I nicknamed her, for obvious reasons!) may you always carry with you the many wonderful memories of your life with Dad -- I know he will -- as will we all. May your heart and soul finally be at peace, and please watch over Dad.

“ I was so sorry to hear about your mother's passing. Both Wayne's & my thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. "Shall claim of death cause us to grieve And make our courage faint and fall? Nay! Let faith and hope receive-- The rose still grows beyond the wall, Scattering fragrance far and wide Just as it did in days of yore, Just as it did on the other side, Just as it will forevermore From writings of A.L.Frink- "the Rose Beyond the Wall" Let me know if there is anything we can do- even if just a listening ear. Love, Alice & Wayne

“ Dear girls and families,
We were on the phone with Lois when you called and she called us back and told us about the picture of you three girls that Aunt Marian was holding on to before she went to sleep. What a precious way for her to "finish her course." At the end, she was recognizing you in the picture..... and happy times of when you wer all young. I'm so glad that we were able to see her and you this fall!!
love and prayers to you all Dick and Mary Ann
