Outstanding Memorial Video of Mr. Mark Glenn. One of the best of one's beautiful life story. He was truly a wonderful, kind, talented person who always had a kind word and shared his handsome smile. Thank you Mark for always having kind word and an outstanding work ethic. My thoughts and prayers to your entire family most especially your beautiful wife and daughter. May You Rest In Peace.

My deepest condolences. Today I found out about the passing of Mark. I am a customer of Conicelli Honda. Mark helped me with my car every time. He was honest, kind, and so helpful. I was shocked and broken to the core when the men who valet the cars told me. He knew my dad was sick and passed in October. I told him and I knew he got a promotion last time I saw him. I was so happy for him. He showed me a pic of his daughter once when I asked about his daughter and always as how his wife and daughter were. I am extremely, and truly sorry for your loss Ms. Glenn. He passed on my dads birthday. Your husband was a wonderful person with the best work ethic. I can see the love in your photos, you are beautiful and so is your daughter. Going there now will never be the same. I called and asked to speak to him and he never called back which was not like Mark. I am so taken back. I didn't even know Mark outside of getting oil changes and my car serviced but I feel like the world lost one of the best humans. May God always be with you and your family. I know Mark is in Heaven. 💔🙏💔

I came upon this tribute to Mark. He was my service rep at Conicelli too. Still remember his kindness. I adopted a cat at Providence. Saw when he passed donations in his name. I did. Such a Gentle man. Going on Wed for service and was thinking of him again. I too know he is heaven. Still hard to conceive his passing so young. Also Patty at checkout has passed. All these people are like family. Miss seeing them. 🙏😭
