“ Dear Toni and family. sorry that Ginny and i could not attend the interment ceremony of your mom with your dad today. our thoughts and prayers are with u. we wanted to remember your mom as we knew her, young, vibrant, full of life, a terric neighbor in Philly and a heck of a good playmate for me. I knew your mom for more years than what u r old. I will so will Ginny treasure every moment we had with her from elementary school thru high school to seeing your oldest sister born, and remember Lynn as a little girl. we have great memories of her parents russell and doris who have gone onto heaven also. Every day i will think of your mom, looking fwd to seeing her again and meeting your dad in heaven along with her parents and grandparents. U have no idea how excited Ginny and i were to find her after so many years even though our finding each other was cut short i will keep every e mail she sent me, they r part of her legacy to me. As u remember it was difficult for me to get up at the viewing and say something about your mom without breaking up and crying that's how i felt about her. I hope we can keep in touch i am sure your mom would want it that way. r.i.p. mary till we meet again, love always your neighbors from Philly Lee and Ginny Buzilow

“ Who can forget Aunt Mary and Uncle Joe from back when we were kids and used to visit them in Willingboro, and then up through the last 35-40 years. Aunt Mary was always kind, generous and a loving person. She will be missed sadly by both Mary & Sam, who became closer through the years.

I want to express my sympathy to all my cousins and their families on the loss of their mother on behalf of the entire Allonardo family.

“ Dear Toni & Family: My deepest sympathy for your loss. Mary's goodness, warmth, humor - and her love for all of you - is her legacy.

She was among the first to welcome me to Buckthorn Court and offered her support along the way as I was struggling to raise 2 sons alone. I will always be indebted to her - and to your dad - for all of their caring and support.

You are so blessed to have such a wonderful mother. Love, Evelyn

“ Grandma was a great person with a big heart. I loved her very much, and I always will. She went far too soon, but she is in a better place now. She may not be here in body, but I know a part of her is with us all. She will always be remembered and I'll hold a special place in my heart and never forget her. “ I remember when Grandmom and Pop pop would always come over with donuts and candy bars for us, usually on Sundays. Pop pop always smelled good and Grandmom always looked her best. Grandmom was a really brave and strong person through this whole process. I really miss you Grandmom, and you too Pop pop. You two were amazing and I love you both so much.

“ To all the Christinzio family, My deepest sympathies to you all as you've lost such a special light in your lives and even though she wasn't my mum...Mary always treated me like a daughter and to me she was like a 2nd mum. My family and I will miss Mary so much, just wish the miles didn't keep us apart. Mary was a beautiful angel who lived among us but sadly had to be taken away from us. I know she'll be watching over us all in spirit and her soul will always be forever in our hearts. RIP Mary, may you always remain shining from above and in our memories...and thank you for letting me have a sister in my life that I never had, Toni. Love you and god bless

“ *Charlene, Toni and families,
Words cannot express my sympathy in the passing of your Mom. Mary was first a co-worker and then became a great friend to me and it is something I will always treasure. May your wonderful memories of her ease the pain and sadness of her death. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.*

“ My grandmother was the strongest person I have ever met. She beat breast cancer and fought tooth and nail to get through this. I knew that she was getting weak and tired. You could just see it on her face and in her eyes. I love her and I know that she knows that. I tried to go up as much as I could and get her anything she asked for. I'm happy that I made her happy while she was still alive. I was so close to her, it just seems unreal that she's gone. She was too young and too special. I guess the saying still stands; only the good die young. I love you so much grandmom and I will miss you more than you would ever know. You are in my thoughts every single day. I will take care of mommy and do all I can to help her get through this, I promise.

“ I knew mary all my life we were neighbors, lived 3 doors apart in Phila. we use to play dolls and mom and dad together had doll babies also. Mary knew my wife also from before we got married almost 45 years ago. i and Ginny will always treasure the memories of mary and all the fun we had together as kids growing up, going to the same elementary school, jr high and h.s. i remember when her first dau was born, we were there for that. WE loved her with all our hearts and still do, as far as i and my wife r concerend mary is still with us. last time i saw mary was apr 09, at a h.s. event, we were like kids reminising over things we did in the early 50"s, i and my wife both cried when we got a phone call from Toni this morning about her mom. i also knew her sister Lynn. R.I.P. MARY, WE WILL NEVER FORGET U EVER. till we meet again, Love Lee and Ginny your friends from Rockland st. in Philly. At the h.s. reunion mary wanted to see Ginny and i so very, very much and we the same. that's all my wife and i talked about on the trip up and back was seeing mary and her dau nicole, little did i know it would be the last time we would ever see her
