“ I know Mary had Native American in her ancestry. I found this poem online and wanted to share it. It's called "A Grief Blessing."

May the sun bring you new energy every day, bringing light into the darkness of your soul.

May the moon softly restore you by night, bathing you in the glow of restful sleep and peaceful dreams.

May the rain wash away your worries and cleanse the hurt that sits in your heart.

May the breeze blow new strength into your being.

May you believe in the courage of yourself.

May you walk gently through the world, keeping your loved one with always, knowing that you are never parted in the beating of your heart.

Native Apache Blessing

“ I was fortunate enough to have Mary as my mother-in-law for several years. She was very loving, warm, caring and generous. I always enjoyed being around her, and so did my family. Her children and grandchildren were her pride and joy. She loved getting the family together for dinners. She loved the holidays. She supported everyone in whatever they were pursuing. My heart aches that she is gone. Such a good woman.

Love, Cathy Twilley

“ Grandmom Mary was a very crafty woman. The greatest memories I have of her is she would pick us girls up and take us out. When we get to her house she loved having tea parties with us. We would sit outside around the picnic table and drink tea and have cookies. She loves tea parties. Her hobby was crafting and boy she did make some very beautiful crafts. She enjoyed teaching us and showing us how to make some of the most beautiful crafts. We were so proud of our work. Than I became a mom and she adored my oldest son Shawn. She would take him out for day when he was a toddler and spoil him. She purchased 2 rockers one for each of my son's. They loved those rockers. Thank you Grandmom for all the memories and though your gone your still in our hearts forever. We love you Grandmom.

“ Grandmom Mary, I have many memories of her picking us girls up and having tea parties and cookies with her. She spend time teaching us girls how to make so many different crafts. We were so proud of our work. As I became a mother, I remember her picking my son Shawn up and taken him out for the day. He had so much fun with her. She bought him a rocker that he just loved. Love you Grandmom and thank you for all the memories. You may be gone, but always in our hearts.

“ There was a time when my Grandmom Mary she showed the importance of a bank account. By saving my money so when I saved enough to buy something big it felt that much more special. That I have saved for. For a summer I mowed her grass and did yard work. She opened up my own bank account and would put money in it that I worked for. And she had given me my first car it may have been a lemon but as a young adult it was a cherry I loved that car. Thanks grandmom Mary you will be missed.
