“ Mommy, thank you for being my best friend- you used to tell everyone “I don’t know what I would do without her- she’s my right arm and even my left-lol” We did everything together - me you and the 3 girls (Casey,Tara,Delilah). You were always there for me and me for you and the both of us for the girls. The bond we have helped us through many bumps in the road- I could lean on you and you could lean on me. You are the strongest/loving woman I know. You had so many losses in your life that you could have just gave up- I no one would have blamed you- but you didn’t you just kept going- getting stronger- more loving- as the years went on. You love children and family was the most important thing to you- you kept going for us for your family. 6-7 years ago a horrible disease called Dimensia creeped in- it slowly took your memories but I really think this was a defense mechanism that God provided you to deal with losing 3 of your sons(John Jr, Dennis,Cifford) and your husband(John Sr)- as us kids were older and moved out of the house- the girls were older now and going to college- their was more time for you to sit and remember all the heartache and the loss you experienced- with Dimensia those thought/memories weren’t able to get in there and you were able to keep going. Mom you are reunited now with your 3 sons and your husband - make sure you catch them up on everything- all the “children” (Great Grandsons/Great Granddaughters)- I love you with all my heart and I thank God that he took you when he did- you still had some memories and still recognized all of us- whenever you seen us you would just light up- you couldn’t say our names- although once in awhile you would blurt out one of our names- you still knew it was us- you would light up- and especially when you seen the “children” you will not just light up you would glow. Mom- I love you with all my heart- you are my hero. Love Clarissa

My mommy showed me how to be strong. I knew you needed my girls and I love you so much that I like to think my girls you needed so with so much tugging at my heart I loved you that much that I sacrificed my girls and lived with my pain so you and them were happy. I love you and love that you were the only one that understood me. Bye beautiful mom thank you and I love you
